INQUIRIES/REQUESTS

CREDENTIALS

Three media credentials are honored for admission to MSG this season: (1) Liberty 2010 season media pass; (2) Liberty 2010 single game pass (good for that specific game only), and (3) 2010 WNBA working media card. NO OTHER CREDENTIALS WILL BE HONORED. Credential requests must be made via e-mail to Casey Sherman from the assigning editor. Requests for single game credentials must be submitted 36 hours prior to game time. Day-of-game requests will not be honored. Radio stations, magazines and weekly newspapers will be accommodated on a space-available basis. When applying for the first time, requests from magazines and weekly newspapers, radio and TV stations must be made on company letterhead and include copies of the publication (if applicable) from the assigning editor. Applying for credentials does not guarantee a confirmation. Those holding season media passes and WNBA season working media cards are required to contact the Communications Office to arrange/reserve seating 24 hours before game time. When working at MSG, it is requested that credentials be worn and displayed at all times.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Positions for credentialed photographers are located on each baseline. Free-lance photographers will not be credentialed without a certificate of assignment from an established publication. No "roving" passes are issued. Assigned photo positions will be posted in the press workroom. Please do not move from your assigned photo positions during game action. Movement is permitted only during timeouts and breaks. Please shoot only from your assigned position(s) unless cleared to move by a PR representative. Please store all coats and extra equipment in the pressroom and/or workroom. It is requested that all photographers please observe the WNBA's mandatory "Three-Foot Lane" rule. There is NO still photography permitted in either team's locker room.

HEAD COACH AVAILABILITY

Liberty head coach Anne Donovan will conduct her pre-game media availability at home games outside of the Liberty lockerroom 90 minutes before tip-off. Donovan's post-game media availability will take place in the "Multi-Purpose" room, located down the hall past the visitor lockerroom. A multi-box/amplification system will be set up for your use. The visiting head coach will usually conduct a post-game session in the hallway outside the visitor locker room. When circumstances dictate, the "Multi-Purpose" room will be used for the visiting coach. On the road, Donovan will host all pre-game media interviews on the court and all post-game media interviews outside the Liberty locker room.

GAME-DAY INTERVIEWS

Participating radio and TV stations/networks are strongly urged to conduct their game-day interviews at the morning shoot-around, rather than at the arena prior to the game. It is requested that all game-day interviews pertain to that day's/evening's game. All other interviews should be scheduled in advance through the Communications Office.

LOCKERROOMS

Both the Liberty and visitor locker rooms are located at court level (5th floor) on the 33rd Street (player benches) side of MSG. Entering the locker room area from courtside, the Liberty locker room is on the right and the visitor locker room on the left. As per WNBA regulations, the Liberty locker room will be open for a 30-minute period, ending one hour prior to game time (for example, the room will be open from 6:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. for a 7:30 p.m. start). The room will re-open within

MEDIA GUIDELINES

10 minutes after the final buzzer and will remain open for a minimum of 30 minutes. Following the 30-minute media access period, locker rooms will be closed for a 20-30 minute period to allow players to shower and dress. The locker rooms may then again be opened to the media. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a work atmosphere in the locker rooms at all times. Any media members using their credentials to gain locker room access for the purpose of obtaining autographs will have their credentials immediately revoked. It is requested that cell phones be set to vibrate or silent when working at MSG.

PRESSROOM & WORKROOM

The John Condon Memorial Press Room at MSG is located on the first promenade at 33rd Street and 8th Avenue (behind the Liberty bench, one level up). From the press entrance, take the elevator directly to level six. From courtside, the pressroom may be reached by walking through Gate 64 and turning right, or through Gate 65 and turning left. The dining area (hot and cold buffet) opens 90 minutes prior to game time. The press workroom, located behind the dining area, is for the exclusive use of working media filing on deadline. Please confine all social gatherings and conversations to the dining area to maintain a professional atmosphere in the workroom. If you are not filing on deadline, please be professional and vacate the work area. Your $8.00 contribution to the press room dining service benefits tri-state area children through MSG's Garden of Dreams Foundation. Numerous credit-card telephones are available in the pressroom for visiting media. Due to the quick changeover for other Garden events, all post game stories should be filed from the press workroom and NOT from courtside.

PRESS MATERIALS

Game notes and media guides are available online (via MediaCentral.NBA.com) and in the press workroom beginning two hours prior to game time. For visiting media, early-edition game notes will be delivered to their hotel the day before the game. Running sheets, half-by-half sheets and box scores are distributed during the game and will be available in the press workroom after the game. Post-game quotes, notes and practice information will be distributed in the press workroom as soon as possible after the game.

POST-GAME PRESS MATERIALS

Media needing a final box score and/or post game quotes faxed and/or e-mailed back to their newsrooms when working at MSG should contact a member of the Liberty game night staff before the conclusion of the game.

PRESS ROW

Press seating is located courtside (on the 33rd Street sideline) and in the ramp box located on the 8th Avenue (Liberty bench) end. Visiting team radio is located in the box above Gate 61.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

MSG's press entrance (8 Penn Plaza) is located on the northeast corner of 33rd Street and 8th Avenue. Day-of-game credentials can be picked up there up to two hours prior to game time. Use the press elevator to enter MSG. There is no media parking at MSG, however, there are numerous pay indoor and outdoor parking areas in the immediate vicinity. Taxi service is also available 24 hours a day at various points around the arena.

TELEVISION REGULATIONS

Television stations intending to produce live shots from MSG must inform the Communications Office, along with MSG electricians (212-465-6186) in advance of the game-day. All in-arena taping and live shots must be concluded no later than one hour prior to game time. Any stations or organizations with equipment that is not battery-operated must use MSG electricians for connection to power.

PRACTICES/SHOOT-AROUNDS

All Liberty practices and game-day shoot-arounds take place at the MSG Training Center in Greenburgh, NY, unless otherwise noted. Visiting teams typically host shoot-arounds at MSG. All practice dates and times are subject to change. Members of the media that are interested in covering/assigning either a Liberty or visiting practice/shoot-around should contact the Communications Office in advance to confirm times.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

JAMES L. DOLAN

Executive Chairman, Madison Square Garden

As executive chairman of Madison Square Garden (MSG), James L. Dolan oversees MSG's many entities, including its world-famous arena complex, professional sports teams, sports and entertainment networks, and historic showplaces. Mr. Dolan also serves as president and chief executive officer of Cablevision Systems Corporation, one of the nation's leading media and entertainment companies.

In his role at MSG, Mr. Dolan is responsible for the company's overall growth strategy and manages all of its operations. He also serves as governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and Rangers.

To ensure the standing of MSG's premier venues, Mr. Dolan has taken on a number of renovation projects throughout his tenure. He is currently overseeing a state-of-the-art renovation of MSG that will completely transform the arena's interior. Mr. Dolan was also the catalyst for a restoration of the group's Beacon Theatre, which was renewed to its former grandeur in early 2009. Among his most significant accomplishments as MSG chairman, Mr. Dolan spearheaded a multimillion-dollar restoration of Radio City Music Hall, returning the national landmark and MSG showpiece to its original splendor.

Over the past few years, Mr. Dolan has taken additional steps to expand MSG's entertainment properties. They include the addition of The Chicago Theatre, which was built in 1921 as one of the country's most opulent motion picture houses. MSG also extended its music business, acquiring a minority-equity interest in Front Line Management, the entertainment industry's largest personal music management firm.

Mr. Dolan has led MSG's response to local and national tragedies. He played a principal role in organizing "The Concert For New York City," which generated more than $35 million in aid for 9/11 victims and heroes, and "From The Big Apple to The Big Easy," which raised nearly $9 million for Hurricane Katrina relief. Mr. Dolan also supports MSG's ongoing commitment to the community, particularly through the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit charity that partners with MSG to help children throughout the New York metropolitan area.

In addition to his leadership role at MSG, Mr. Dolan is president and CEO of Cablevision, which served as MSG's corporate parent until February 2010, when the sports and entertainment business became a separate, public company. At Cablevision, Mr. Dolan oversees the company's comprehensive portfolio of advanced, Optimum-branded residential and business telecommunications services, as well as Rainbow Media, a Cablevision subsidiary that manages some of today's most watched and recognized programming networks - AMC, IFC, Sundance Channel, and WE tv. Also under his purview, and serving the New York tri-state area, are the company's local media and programming properties, which include News 12 Networks, MSG Varsity and Newsday, one of the nation's largest daily newspapers. Other entertainment businesses under the Cablevision umbrella include Clearview Cinemas, one of the tri-state area's leading motion picture exhibitors.

Prior to assuming his present posts at Cablevision and MSG, in the early 1990s, Mr. Dolan served as chief executive officer of Rainbow Programming Holdings, Inc. (now Rainbow Media Holdings LLC) where he oversaw all facets of the business. Mr. Dolan began his career with Cablevision in the 1970s and served in a variety of executive positions before overseeing Rainbow.

Mr. Dolan is a member of the board of directors of The Lustgarten Foundation, an organization he helped found in 1998 which today is the nation's largest private supporter of pancreatic cancer research. He also sits on the boards of the NYU Steinhardt Dean's Council and the Breathe Easy Play Hard Foundation. In addition to serving on MSG's board of directors, Mr. Dolan is a member of Cablevision's board of directors and its executive committee.

HANK J. RATNER

President and Chief Executive Officer Madison Square Garden

HANK J. RATNER is President and Chief Executive Officer of Madison Square Garden, which includes renowned performance venues, entertainment properties, professional sports teams and television networks. Mr. Ratner directs the overall growth strategy and day-to-day operations of the business. He also serves as alternate governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and Rangers.

MSG's signature assets consist of some of the nation's most popular entertainment and sports properties, including "The World's Most Famous Arena," along with New York's Radio City Music Hall and Beacon Theatre, The Chicago Theatre and the Wang Theatre in Boston. Other MSG entities include the New York Knicks, Rangers and Liberty; MSG Entertainment, a live-entertainment company; MSG and MSG Plus, regional sports and entertainment networks; and Fuse, a national music network.

Most recently, Mr. Ratner led the spin off of Madison Square Garden from Cablevision Systems Corporation and, today, MSG operates as a standalone, public company. He is also spearheading the renovation of MSG, which will transform the arena into a state-of-the-art building that will significantly enhance the experience of customers, marketing partners, athletes and performers. The project will include a dramatically redesigned Seventh Avenue entrance, new seats, improved sightlines, spectacular public concourses and a restoration of the Garden's distinctive and celebrated ceiling. Mr. Ratner served as MSG's Vice Chairman for seven years before being named President and Chief Executive Officer, following MSG's spin off from Cablevision in February 2010. Throughout his tenure, Mr. Ratner has been influential in formulating and implementing strategic direction for MSG. He played a key role in bringing three of the country's landmark showplaces - New York City's legendary Beacon Theatre, the historic Chicago Theatre and the Wang Theatre in Boston - under MSG management. In addition, he helped to secure a multi-year deal between MSG and Cirque du Soleil and developed the strategy of having the company's live music assets work together with Fuse, MSG's national music network.

As Chairman of the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit that works closely with all areas of Madison Square Garden, Mr. Ratner has been a driving force behind the creation and significant expansion of the charity's programs, enhancing its commitment to make dreams come true for children facing enormous obstacles. Since its inception in 2006, Garden of Dreams has created thousands of once-in-a-lifetime experiences at MSG, Radio City Music Hall, the Beacon Theatre and at the MSG Training Center, brightening the lives of more than 135,000 tri-state area children in crisis, and their families.

Mr. Ratner has also been serving as Cablevision Vice Chairman since 2003. In that role, he helps to set corporate direction and strategy for the media and telecommunications company. Prior to serving as MSG and Cablevision vice chairman, Mr. Ratner served as Vice Chairman of Rainbow Media Holdings, the programming subsidiary of Cablevision. At Rainbow, he helped lead the executive management team that has directed AMC, IFC, Bravo, WE tv, Fuse, Lifeschool, News 12 Networks, Rainbow Advertising Sales Corporation and Rainbow Sports Networks.

In 2005, Mr. Ratner led Cablevision's negotiations with Fox to restructure the ownership of assets held by Regional Programming Partners, a partnership between the two companies. This restructuring gave Cablevision, among other benefits, 100 percent ownership of MSG and its properties.

In addition, Mr. Ratner has a long history of managing Cablevision's sports and entertainment programming rights and relationships, as well as its programming development efforts. This included negotiating Rainbow's sale of Bravo to NBC. Mr. Ratner also played a primary role in the agreement between Rainbow and MGM, and the establishment and management of Rainbow's long and fruitful partnership with NBC.

Mr. Ratner joined Cablevision as Assistant General Counsel in 1987. A year later, he moved to Rainbow Media, rising to the position of Rainbow's Chief Operating Officer in 1998. Mr. Ratner was then promoted to Vice Chairman of Rainbow Media in 2002 before being named Vice Chairman of Cablevision in 2002 and MSG in 2003.

Previously, Mr. Ratner was an associate with the law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell. He received a bachelor's degree and doctorate of law with distinction from Emory University.

SCOTT O'NEIL

President, Madison Square Garden Sports

SCOTT O'NEIL was named President, Madison Square Garden Sports in July 2008. In this role, he oversees all aspects of business operations for the three professional sports teams, the New York Knicks, Rangers and Liberty, as well as the Sports Properties area, which includes college basketball, boxing, tennis and all other sports events. He also manages marketing partnerships and suite sales for the soon to be renovated Garden.

Since joining Madison Square Garden, Mr. O'Neil has attracted premier talent from around the sports world to lead the business in establishing an innovative, passionate and results-oriented culture. He has directed a refocused commitment to providing first class service to fans, subscribers and marketing partners, resulting in growth across all areas of the division.

Mr. O'Neil comes to Madison Square Garden from the National Basketball Association, where, as Senior Vice President, he oversaw the league's team marketing and business operations, advising NBA and WNBA teams on ticket sales and service, sponsorship development, and marketing. He also managed the NBA's Canadian business and the NBA Development League. Prior to joining the NBA, he oversaw the launch of HoopsTV, and honed his sales and marketing expertise with the Philadelphia Eagles and New Jersey Nets.

Mr. O'Neil was named to Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal Forty Under 40 Hall of Fame, and was named one of the nation's top marketing executives under 40 by Advertising Age in 2006. He is also a member of Young Presidents' Organization (YPO), a not-for-profit, global network of chief executives connected around the shared mission of becoming better leaders through education and idea exchange.

Mr. O'Neil dedicates his time to working with a number of non-profit organizations, including serving as a Board Member for the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit charity that works with all areas of Madison Square Garden to "make dreams come true for kids in crisis." In addition, he is on the Advisory Board for the Each One Counts Foundation, and a Board Member for the TRU Foundation.

He holds a degree in Marketing from Villanova University and a M.B.A. from the Harvard Business School.

BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

CAROL BLAZEJOWSKI

President & General Manager

14th Season

With the same tenacity, skill and passion that made her one of basketball's greatest players, Carol Blazejowski has guided the New York Liberty from an impossible dream into a stunning reality, resulting in record crowds and nationwide excitement.

The woman who revolutionized the game as a player has done the same as the guiding force behind one of the WNBA's showpiece franchises - a three-time Eastern Conference Champion with appearances in four WNBA Finals.

With 13 WNBA seasons behind her, Blazejowski, known as Blaze, has shepherded the growth of the "Liberty experience" - a unique combination of competitive basketball and a fun-filled in-arena atmosphere - while remaining focused on one goal: bringing the WNBA Championship to New York.

Assembling the team on the court, of course, is just one of Blaze's numerous responsibilities. From keeping a close eye on game presentation to overseeing the team's marketing and merchandising efforts - including the Liberty and Madison Square Garden's successful hosting of the inaugural WNBA All-Star Game in 1999, again in 2003 and 2006, and The Game at Radio City Music Hall in 2004 and the Liberty's Outdoor Classic in 2008 - exceeding fans expectations is always prominent in her mind.

Blaze's professional career included a 10-year stint with Adidas (1980-90), where she first developed and implemented marketing initiatives for women's sports programs. Her savvy business sense and notable background led her to the NBA league office where she served as the league's Director of Licensing (1990-95) and Director of Women's Basketball Programs (1995-96). Blaze was named the newly formed WNBA's Director of Basketball Development before joining the Liberty as vice president and general manager on January 7, 1997. She was promoted to senior vice president and general manager in 2000, and most recently was named president and general manager in 2008.

During her playing career, Blazejowski earned Kodak All-American honors (1976, 1977, 1978) at Montclair State and was the first winner of the Margaret Wade Trophy as Women's College Player of the Year (1977-78). Blazejowski's on-court heroics earned her enshrinement into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts in 1994, an honor she currently shares with only 18 other women. In 1999, she was also inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, along with 26 other pioneers of the women's game.

On September 18, 2003, Blaze reached yet another milestone when she was inducted into the Madison Square Garden Walk of Fame for her 52-point effort against Queens College on March 6, 1977 - which still stands as the men's and women's collegiate scoring record in the current Madison Square Garden. "And remember," says Blaze with a smile, "no three-pointers back then, either!"

Blazejowski resides in Nutley, NJ, with her family: Joyce, Lainey and Luke.

ANNE DONOVAN

Head Coach First Season

The 2010 WNBA season marks Donovan's first full season as the Liberty's head coach, and her 10th year overall in the league. The Liberty originally hired her as an assistant coach on April 28, 2009. Half way through the 2009 regular season, Donovan was named the interim head coach on July 31, 2009 and was named head coach on December 3, 2009.

Donovan began her WNBA career as the interim head coach of the expansion Indiana Fever in 2000, followed by head coaching positions with the Charlotte Sting (2001-2002) and the Seattle Storm (2003-2007). She amassed a regular-season record of 93-77 (.547) with four playoff appearances in Seattle, including the 2004 WNBA Championship title. Donovan became the first female coach in WNBA history to reach the 100-win mark with the Storm's victory over Minnesota on August 18, 2005. Her coaching career originated at the collegiate level where she was an assistant at her alma mater Old Dominion (1989-1995) before taking the helm at East Carolina University (1995-1998). She also was the head coach of the Philadelphia Rage in the former American Basketball League (ABL) in 1998.

Donovan owns a remarkable 132-10 (.930) all-time record on the sidelines for USA Basketball. As an assistant coach, she helped the U.S. capture gold at the Olympics in 1998 and 2004. While serving as head coach, she led the 2008 U.S. Women's Senior National Team to gold in Beijing and as a result was chosen with Mike Krzyzewski as co-recipients of the 2008 USA Basketball National Coach of the Year award in early 2009.

As a player, she won gold with the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic Teams, 1983 and 1987 Pan American Games Teams, 1986 World Championship Team and the 1978 and 1979 U.S. Olympic Festival East Teams. A Naismith Award winner and three-time All-American selection at Old Dominion, Donovan was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, MA on May 15, 1995. She was one of the twenty-six inductees in the inaugural class of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in June of 1999. Additionally, she is a member of the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame, the Old Dominion Sports Hall of Fame and the CoSIDA Academic All-American Hall of Fame.

LAURIE BYRD

Assistant Coach

First Season

The 2010 WNBA season is Laurie Byrd's first full season on the Liberty sidelines, having been named assistant coach on January 5, 2010. Byrd previously served as the interim assistant coach during the second half of the Liberty's 2009 season.

Her main responsibilities include assisting head coach Anne Donovan in player development, game preparation and scouting, in addition to planning practices and individual player workouts.

Prior to joining the New York bench, Byrd served as an assistant coach with the Houston Comets in 2008. In the 2007 season, she was the Comets' director of player personnel, working with Comets head coach and general manager Karleen Thompson in evaluating WNBA personnel, international and developmental league players, as well as college draft prospects. In addition, she helped with team salary cap matters. Byrd served as an assistant coach for three seasons (2003-2005) with the Detroit Shock, including the 2003 WNBA Championship season.

She first entered the coaching ranks at the University of Detroit as an assistant for three seasons (1999-00, 2000-01, 2001-02).

Byrd has an extensive career on the hardwood, playing in the American Basketball League for the San Jose Lasers and Atlanta Glory, as well as the Kentucky Marauders and Chicago Spirits in the Women's Basketball Association. She played seven seasons with numerous basketball clubs in Sweden, Italy, Spain and Switzerland.

The Flint, MI native has received many awards and honors during her career, including an induction into the Eastern Michigan Hall of Fame in 1992 and the AAU Hall of Fame in 1993. In 2003, she was named the Think Detroit Honorary Double Goal Coach of the Year.

Byrd holds a bachelor's degree in education from Eastern Michigan University.

LISA WHITE

Athletic Trainer/Basketball Operations Manager

14th Season

An original member of the Liberty staff, Lisa White is beginning her 14th season as the team's head athletic trainer and 12th year as a full-time staff member.

A Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC), White joined the Liberty for the inaugural 1997 season, while also serving as the head athletic trainer at Adelphi University. In 1999, Lisa's responsibilities were expanded and now include all related basketball operations duties.

As head athletic trainer, White's day-to-day focus is the care and prevention of injuries as well as coordinating rehabilitation programs. She also implements strength and conditioning regimens specifically designed for each individual player.

White's training career began at Adelphi in 1989 as the University's assistant ATC. She was promoted to head ATC in 1991, and continued for the next seven years in that capacity until joining the Liberty full-time. White has also lent her time and expertise to the US Olympic Development Program's Youth Soccer Tours (1994-96) and accompanied the 1997 WNBA Touring Team to Europe.

White earned a BA Degree in Liberal Arts with a concentration in Athletic Training from SUNY Stony Brook in 1987, and completed her education in 1991 with a Master's in Sports Management from Adelphi. As a four-year hoop letter-winner at Stony Brook, White shared backcourt duties with her identical twin sister Michele, tallying 1,283 career points. She was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998.

A native of Queens, Lisa is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and a member of the New York State Athletic Trainers Association. White also served as head Athletic Trainer for the Eastern Conference at the 1999, 2000, 2002 and 2006 WNBA All-Star Games, as well as The Game at Radio City Music Hall in 2004.

CATHERINE PROTO

Manager, Scouting & Video Operations

Seventh Season

The 2010 season marks Catherine Proto's seventh year as the Liberty's manager of scouting and video operations. As part of the Liberty coaching staff, Proto assists in the preparation of practice, team strategies and opponent scouting. She also oversees the development of the team's playbook, coordination of all live advanced scouting, travel, scouting reports and budget. As director of the team's video operations, she handles the taping and breaking down of practice, games and opponent's film, film exchange, development of team and opponent tape breakdown and creation of individual player film. Previously, Proto held the position of assistant video coordinator and advanced scout coordinator during the Liberty's 2002 season and spent two summers (2000, 2001) as an intern in the video operations department.

Prior to joining the Liberty staff, Proto served as the director of basketball operations for the women's basketball team at the University of Rhode Island. She also worked as an intern in the awards and grants department for the Women's Sports Foundation.

Proto graduated from Springfield College in 2001 with a Bachelor of Science degree in sport management, and spent two years as a member of the varsity women's basketball team that won back-to-back NEWMAC Championships (2000-2001, 2001-2002) and made two NCAA Tournament appearances.

She received her Master's degree in physical education in 2002 and is a member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA).

DR. JO A. HANNAFIN

Team Physician

Dr. Hannafin is board certified in orthopedic surgery/sports medicine. She is an Attending Orthopedic Surgeon and Director of Orthopedic Research at Hospital for Special Surgery and Professor of Orthopedic Surgery at Weill Medical College of Cornell University. Dr. Hannafin was a USOC physician for the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, U.S. team physician at the 2003 Pan American Games in the Dominican Republic, and an event physician at the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games. Dr. Hannafin was a team physician for the WUSA New York Power from 2000-2003 and an Assistant Team Physician to the NY Mets from 1992-1996. She has been team physician to the U.S. Rowing Team since 1994 and is a member of the FISA Medical Commission. Dr. Hannafin has been repeatedly honored as one of The Best Doctors in America.

Dr. Hannafin earned a Bachelor of Science in Aquatic Biology from Brown University in 1977 and completed MD and PhD degrees at Albert Einstein College of Medicine in the Bronx. She completed an orthopaedic surgery residency at Montefiore medical Center and a sports Medicine and shoulder fellowship at the Hospital for Special Surgery.

Dr. Hannafin currently resides in Greenwich, CT.

MSG TRAINING CENTER

The Madison Square Garden Training Center, just north of New York City in Westchester County, is the home-away-from-home for the New York Liberty. The facility also houses the New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

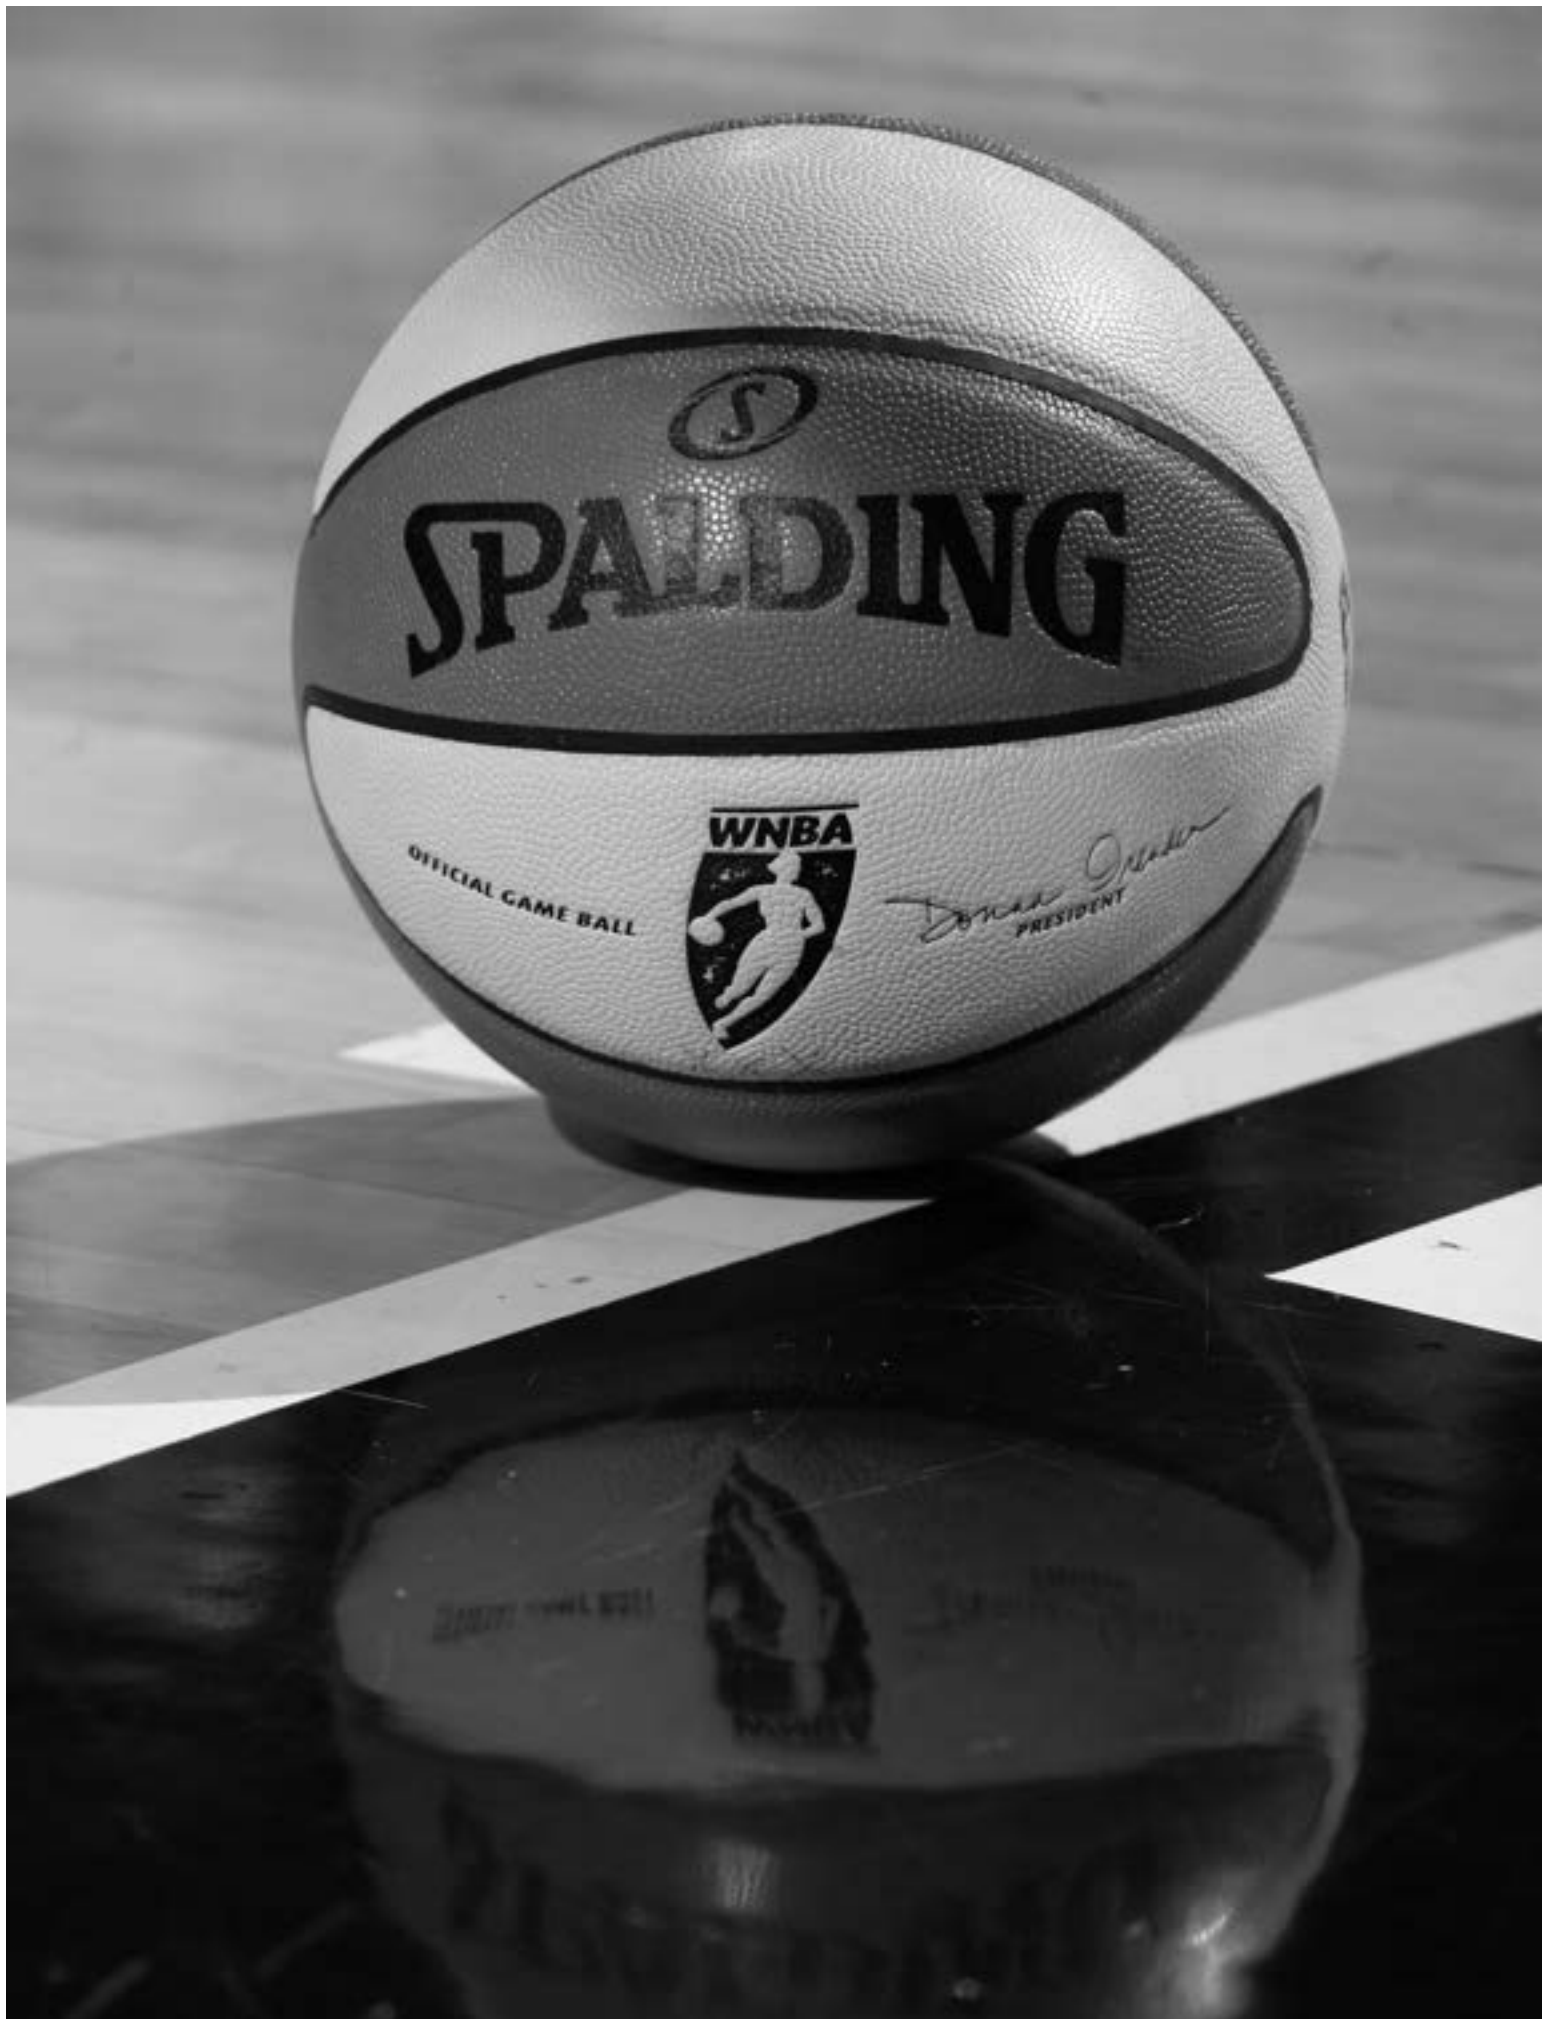

The Training Center features amenities such as a Hydro Worx 1000 aquatic therapy pool, a dining room with seating for 40 people and auxiliary locker rooms which can be utilized for visiting teams in need of additional practice time during their stay in New York.

In addition, the state-of-the-art facility houses:

- 1,800 square foot complete cardiovascular and weight room
- Steam rooms, whirlpool and cold plunge
- Players' lounges with leather sofas, lounge chairs, 42" High Definition Television, pool and ping pong tables and refreshment center
- Gated parking lots located adjacent to a private entrance into the players' lounge
- Tiered classrooms with high-back theater style seating
- State of the art video editing rooms
- Coaches' lounge/offices

Additionally, media accommodations include dedicated media rooms with workstations, pre-wired for phone and internet access, an interview room for one-on-one or small group interviews, as well as cabled locations for remote broadcast. The basketball courts and hockey rink are all equipped with dedicated seating for attending media.

2009 IN REVIEW

2009 GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

GAME 1 / 06-07-09: CT 66, NY 57

New York dropped its Opening Day game against Connecticut and slipped to 3-10 overall in season openers ... The Liberty controlled the tempo in the first frame edging the Sun 16-15 behind Shameka Christon's seven points ... The second quarter saw three ties, but as the seconds winded down New York stayed close ... Sidney Spencer's free throws under the one minute mark brought the Liberty within one point ... As time expired after a Sun shot clock violation, Leilani Mitchell heaved a one-handed toss from beyond halfcourt and gave New York a 32-30 lead heading into the half ... Connecticut took over in the third period, taking advantage of New York's scoring drought and going up by as many as 12 ... With seven minutes remaining, McCarville nailed a trey to pull the Liberty within five, but Erin Phillips answered with a three pointer for the Sun and extended their lead to eight ... The visitors maintained their lead in the final frame, leading by as many as 11 and secured their victory ... Christon netted a team high 13 points.

GAME 2 / 06-10-09: NY 84, PHX 91

New York came out with a red-hot shooting hand (62.5-percent from the floor) to take a 26-22 lead in the first quarter led by Janel McCarville's perfect four-for-four shooting ... Phoenix edged the Liberty in the second frame, outscoring the visitors 21-18, behind the play of Diana Taurasi and her seven points ... Shooting 54.5-percent from long range for the half, New York led 44-43 heading into the break ... The shots were not falling for the Liberty in the second half and the Mercury took advantage of that opportunity ... New York's poor shooting and turnovers sparked Phoenix to make a 9-2 run to start the fourth quarter ... The Mercury took a 78-70 lead with just under five minutes remaining and the Liberty's shooting woes continued and they never got closer than five points the rest of the way ... Essence Carson netted a team-high 18 points and Loree Moore chipped in 13 off the bench.

GAME 3 / 06-13-09: NY 60, SAN 63

New York was unable to hold onto its six-point fourth quarter lead and dropped its third straight game of the season ... San Antonio went on an 11-0 late run to take the lead, led by Becky Hammon's 10 fourth quarter points ... Plagued by a scoring drought that spanned over three minutes, the trailing Liberty were brought within two points after Essence Carson connected on a three-pointer at the top of the key ... Hammon answered with a lay-up on the other end to push the score to 62-58, followed by a lay-up from Janel McCarville to bring New York within two once again at 7.3 to go ... ALL-TIME LIBERTY HISTORY

THE NEW YORK LIBERTY STORY

- On October 30, New York was selected as one of eight charter members of the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA).
- Rebecca Lobo and Teresa Weatherspoon joined as the team's first players and the franchise name and logo were introduced.

1997

- Carol Blazejowski, a member of the Basketball Hall of Fame, is named vice president and general manager for the Liberty.
- The Liberty's and WNBA's first game was played on June 21 in Los Angeles. Led by head coach Nancy Darsch, the Liberty defeated the Los Angeles Sparks, 67-57, before a crowd of 14,284 at The Forum.
- On June 29, in front of a Madison Square Garden (MSG) crowd of 17,780, the Liberty scored its first win in its first game at home, defeating Phoenix, 65-57.
- New York notched seven straight victories to start the inaugural season, finished in second place in the conference and advanced to the first ever Championship game versus the Houston Comets.
- An average of 13,270 fans attended each of the Liberty's 14 home games.

- Despite a rough start to the season, New York rallied late in the second half, including a stretch when it won 10 out of 11 games.
- One of those wins was a 70-54 victory over the champion Houston Comets. This rematch took place in front of the Liberty's first ever-MSG capacity crowd of 19,563 in a nationally televised contest on NBC.

- Veteran NBA coach Richie Adubato took over the team reins on June 10 and guided the Liberty to an 87-60 victory over the defending Eastern Conference champion Cleveland Rockers.
- With the Liberty posting impressive attendance figures for the third straight season, MSG played host to the first-ever WNBA All-Star Game, which saw a sellout (18,649) crowd on July 14. Four Liberty players participated: Rebecca Lobo, Teresa Weatherspoon, Kym Hampton, and Vickie Johnson.
- The Liberty posted an overall mark of 18-14 and won its first Eastern Conference title.
- Despite falling short of the WNBA title, the series against the Comets was pushed to a third game when Weatherspoon made the most famous shot in WNBA history - a half court buzzer-beating shot that won Game Two before a stunned Houston squad and Compaq Center crowd.

- Newly acquired center Tari Phillips thrived in the New York spotlight, leading the team in points and rebounds and earned the WNBA's Most Improved Player Award.
- Weatherspoon was voted to the WNBA All-Star squad as well as the WNBA All-Second Team.
- With a club best 20-12 record, the team finished atop the Eastern Conference and earned a third trip to the WNBA Championship. New York fell went 2-0 against Houston, but had a strong Game Two showing with four players scoring in double figures.

- In its fifth anniversary season, the team advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals versus Charlotte, however fell in the series 2-1.
- The franchise led the league in attendance, averaging 15,660 fans per game. The team set a new franchise record for victories, finishing the season 21-11. The team tied a record win streak with seven in a row from June 21 - July 5.
- Both Tari Phillips and Teresa Weatherspoon reached the 1,000 career point mark.
- The All-Star Game featured the Liberty coaching staff leading the East squad, which included Liberty starters Phillips, Weatherspoon and Johnson.
- Sue Wicks capped off the season by winning the Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award.

- Coach Adubato and company led New York to 18 wins, tying for fourth best in the league - including a streak of 10 wins out of 14 games.
- The Liberty won four consecutive season ending games to advance to the Playoffs, first in the opening round versus the Indiana Fever, followed by the Conference Finals against the Washington Mystics.
- The Liberty advanced to the WNBA Finals for the fourth time in six years, before falling to the Los Angeles Sparks, 2-0.
- New York shot a franchise and all-time WNBA record 66 percent from the floor versus the Mystics on August 24, in game two of the Eastern Conference Championships along with scoring a franchise-high 96 points in the same game.
- Weatherspoon became the first player in WNBA history to tally 1,000 points and 1,000 assists. Johnson became the first Liberty player and 11th in the WNBA to score 2,000 points.
- As a result of her dominant play, Phillips was named to the 2002 All-WNBA Second team.
- For the first time in franchise history, four players finished the season averaging double-figures in scoring; Phillips (14.1), Whitmore (12.7), Robinson (11.8) and Johnson (11.6).

- By posting a sixth consecutive winning record, the Liberty is also able to boast that they were one of only two teams in the WNBA to have had a winning record in each year the WNBA had been in existence.

- Sue Wicks, the Liberty's first ever draft pick, announced her retirement just prior to training camp.
- New York started the season winning three of its first five games with guard Hammon leading the charge by averaging 18.6 ppg during that span.
- On July 12, the organization hosted the 2003 WNBA All-Star game for the second time in franchise history.
- At Connecticut versus the Sun on August 12, the Liberty overcame a 17-point deficit to post a 74-73 last second victory, which was the second largest comeback in team history. New York defied the odds a second time in Washington versus the Mystics on August 21, battling back from a 20-point halftime shortfall to mark the largest margin of a comeback victory (65-60) for the Liberty all-time.
- In the strangest scenario all season, due to the New York City blackout on August 14, the Liberty became the first team in WNBA history to play three games in as many days—playing the first back-to-back-to-back in league history.

- The Liberty was feeling confident heading into its eighth WNBA season and sprinted out of the gate, posting a 6-1 record.
- After encountering a rough patch in the middle of the season, Pat Coyle replaced Adubato as head coach and immediately turned the team around. Under Coyle's guidance, the team registered an 11-6 mark and secured their sixth playoff appearance.
- The Liberty played to sellout crowds for six games at the historic Radio City Music Hall and posted a 5-1 record.
- New York City's "Great Stage" hosted The Game at Radio City, which featured the USA Women's Olympic team vs. a WNBA Select Team.
- In Game Three of the Playoffs first round, the Liberty knocked off the defending champion Detroit Shock. With the clock winding down, Becky Hammon dished off to Bethany Donaphin, who calmly drained a game-winning jumper and sent New York to the Eastern Conference Finals vs. the Connecticut Sun.

2005

- The Liberty played five games in 10 days, winning each of them.
- New York finished the season posting an 18-16 record, yet another winning year, resulting in another post-season appearance.
- For its seventh playoff berth in nine years, the Liberty matched up against the Indiana Fever in the First Round.
- Hammon was one of only two Liberty players (Vickie Johnson being the other) to start every game during the season. She was voted by the fans as a starter for the 2005 WNBA All-Star Game and recorded her 2,000th career point on August 16. To cap her stellar season, she was named to the All-WNBA Second Team.
- Throughout the season: Vickie Johnson scored her 3,000th point, making her just the seventh player in WNBA history to accomplish this mark. Additionally, she pulled down her 1,000th rebound just over a month later. Elena Baranova recorded her 2,000th career point and Crystal Robinson notched her 500th rebound.

- New York, as well as the WNBA itself, celebrated its 10th Anniversary. The Liberty and Madison Square Garden also hosted the WNBA All-Star Game for the third time.
- The franchise welcomed its two millionth fan and became the first team in the history of the WNBA to reach that mark.
- New York became the first team in the WNBA to have its complete regular season aired on television, as Liberty games were seen on MSG Network, ABC and ESPN2.
- In true New York spirit, the team rallied in the second half of the summer, finishing the season by winning seven of its last 10 games.
- Despite missing part of the season with an injury, Hammon still finished as the top free-throw shooter in the league (.960) and Erin Thorn led the WNBA in three-point shooting, posting a .431 average on the year.
- The Liberty honored legend Teresa Weatherspoon by making her just the second woman to ever be inducted into the MSG Walk of Fame. As a finishing touch, her name and the number 11 is permanently displayed on The Garden court in front of celebrity row.

- In its 11th season, the Liberty carried its then youngest roster in franchise history.
- On Opening Day, New York tied a Madison Square Garden record for the most three-pointers (13) in one game, against the Chicago Sky - leading to the team's first season opening victory since the 1999 season.

THE NEW YORK LIBERTY STORY

- The new-look squad went on to win its next four games for a roaring 5-0 start to the summer, the second best season start for the organization.
- In the entire history of the WNBA, never had two teams with at least 3-0 marks met face-to-face until the Liberty beat the Indiana Fever on June 5.
- The Liberty went 6-4 in its final 10 games of the season and clinched the final Playoff for its eighth post-season campaign.
- After capturing victory in Game One against the Shock - beating them by a franchise best 22-point margin - the Liberty lost by three points in Game Two and was within seconds of winning the series, but lost by one point in a Game Three overtime thriller.
- Janel McCarville was named the WNBA's Most Improved Player of the Year in her first season with the Liberty and Loree Moore earned second-team All-Defensive accolades for her third season in New York.
- With a .372 percentage from three-point range on the year, New York wrapped the regular season as the League's No. 1 overall leader and boasted five players in the WNBA's Top 20 category of long-range shooters.

- With an average age of 24.4 to tip-off the summer, New York's roster registered as the youngest in the WNBA for the season, in addition to the youngest in its 12 year history.
- New York scored 100-plus (105) points for the first time in franchise history when hosting the defending WNBA Champion Phoenix Mercury on June 22. Ultimately winning the game 105-72, the Liberty's bench out-scored the Mercury's bench, 62-21 and set a new WNBA record for most points scored by a bench.
- Just four days after recording the most points in club history, on June 26 the Liberty once again posted 100-plus points in a victory over the Indiana Fever - winning 102-96. The game went into triple overtime, a regular season first for both clubs and tied for the second longest in overtime periods in WNBA history.
- On July 5, New York earned its 200th franchise victory with a win in Phoenix. The Liberty joined the Sparks, Comets & Monarchs as the only teams in the WNBA to reach the 200-win mark.
- In front of a 19,393 fans, professional basketball history was made when the Liberty hosted the Fever at Arthur Ashe Stadium in the first regular season game to be played outdoors in sport's history. The game was also the first non-tennis sporting event to be held at the historic USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center.

- Pat Coyle coached the young squad to the franchise's first 19-win season since 2001, wrapping the regular season with a 19-15 record.
- After topping the Connecticut Sun 2-1 in the first round of the WNBA Playoffs, the Liberty made its fifth appearance in the Eastern Conference Finals to face rival, the Detroit Shock. New York captured Game One, but was forced to a third match-up and lost the series 1-2.

- Hall of Famer and a New Jersey native Anne Donovan enjoyed a homecoming when she joined the Liberty sidelines as an assistant. Donovan replaced Pat Coyle as the interim head coach halfway through the season, compiling a 7-10 record to finish off the summer.
- Four Liberty players finished ranked amongst the WNBA's top 10 statistical leaders in six categories.
- Shameka Christon became the 10th player in franchise history to be named a WNBA All-Star and the first since 2006. In the same week of receiving that honor, she scored her 2,000th career point - the fourth player in club history to do so - and was named WNBA Eastern Conference Player of the Week after scoring a career-high 32 points versus the Atlanta Dream at Madison Square Garden.
- New York finished the regular season ranked as one of the league's top three long-range shooting teams, registering .358-percent from beyond-the-arc.
- The Liberty wrapped its 13th WNBA season on a high note with a win over Conference rival, the Washington Mystics on the final day of the regular season at The Garden. The franchise owns a 6-1 all-time record when closing out the season on its home floor.

In 2010, the Liberty plans to build on the great strides made throughout its exhilarating runs of the past, with its ultimate goal continuing to be bringing New York fans the championship trophy they so deserve.

HISTORY: On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June of 1997.

Since that day in 1996 there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

Val Ackerman: the first president of the WNBA

Sheryl Swoopes: the first player signed to the WNBA

Cynthia Cooper: the league's first Most Valuable Player

Houston Comets: the first WNBA Champions

Lisa Leslie: the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)

Lauren Jackson: the first international player to win MVP (2007)

Candace Parker: the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)

Sylvia Fowles: the first goaltending call (vs. LA 6/3/2008)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, California. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks' guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A GROWING GAME: The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past 12 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and our league reflects this trend, featuring 23 international players from 16 countries and territories at the end of the 2008 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased +277 percent since 1990 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 18 percent since 1990 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43 percent since 1990 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

ALL-STAR GAME: The 2010 WNBA All-Star Game will feature a unique, exciting format in which the USA Basketball Women's National Team will compete against a team of WNBA All-Stars. The game will take place at Mohegan Sun Arena on Saturday, July 10 at 3:30 p.m. ET on ESPN. ESPN will broadcast the game with tip-off set for 3:30 p.m. ET. The U.S. squad will be coached Geno Auriemma.

The 2009 WNBA All-Star Game was held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. on Saturday, July 25. It was the ninth such game in league history, and second played at Mohegan Sun, and was played in front of a sellout crowd of 9,518. The West beat the East 130-118 in the highest scoring All-Star Game in WNBA history. Swin Cash of the Seattle Storm claimed MVP honors. Cash, who tallied an All-Star record 22 points on 10-of-16, was one of five former UConn Huskies who were participating in the game.

INSPIRING COACH: The Inspiring Coach Award is an annual honor introduced in 2007 to honor coaches who have positively influenced athletes across numerous levels and whose achievements leave an indelible mark on sports as a whole. The University of Tennessee's Pat Summitt earned the honor in 2009 for her profound impact on female athletes and her demonstrated commitment, passion, and dedication to work, family, and community. Previous winners include Kay Yow and Jody Conradt.

INSPIRING WOMEN: The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family, and community. Past honorees include Emmy-award winning journalist Cokie Roberts, Good Morning America's Robin Roberts, Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, and the WNBA All-Decade Team.

DAWN STALEY AWARD: The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Tamika Catchings won the inaugural award in 2007 while Tamika Raymond was named the winner for 2008. A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history, while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

MARKETING: The WNBA maintains marketing, promotional, and media partnerships with a variety of top companies, each with varying levels of activation and integration in league operations.

Marketing Partners: adidas, EA SPORTS, Gatorade, HP, Kia Motors, NIKE, Peak, Pitney Bowes, Russell, Southwest, Spalding, Starwood, T-Mobile, Toyota

PROMOTIONAL PARTNERS: 1-800-Flowers, Booz Allen, Meredith, General Mills, OfficeMax, Protégé

MEDIA PARTNERS: IHOP, Merck, Sanofi Pasteur

New partners in 2008 included such major companies as Kia Motors, IHOP and Pitney Bowes. HP, Starwood Hotels and Resorts and "Got Milk?" all joined the WNBA as partners for the 2009 season.

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fan base of women, families, and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events. Through the WNBA's extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas, the sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA - having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 - but also as the presenter of the 2007, 2008, and 2009 WNBA Drafts and in 2008 became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the playoffs and Finals.

WNBA HISTORY

Two WNBA teams entered the 2009 season as forerunners in the league's Marquee Partnership program, which includes multiyear deals featuring branded sponsorship of game jerseys - the Phoenix Mercury partnering with LifeLock, a giant in the identity theft industry, and the Los Angeles Sparks partnering with Farmers Insurance Group.

ATTENDANCE /TV RATINGS: The WNBA concluded the 2009 regular season with its third consecutive year of increased attendance and second consecutive year of increased viewership on ESPN2. The WNBA regular season on ESPN2 concluded with an average of 269,000 viewers, up 8 percent versus 2008 (248,000 viewers). Regular-season games on ESPN2 saw increases in key demographics, including men 18-34 (+9 percent), men 18-49 (+14 percent), and men 23-54 (+23 percent).

For the 2009 WNBA Finals presented by adidas, average viewership on ESPN2 jumped 76 percent from 2008. The five-game series featuring the Indiana Fever and Phoenix Mercury also featured three sellouts and the highest total attendance figure (82,018) in WNBA Finals history.

The WNBA has one of the top five Facebook fanbases among sports leagues, with more than 275,000 fans (www.Facebook.com/wnba).

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2009 included live national telecasts of 29 regular-season and postseason contests on ESPN2 and ABC, and another 50 games on NBA TV, as well as games streamed on ESPN360.com.

In addition, fans watched more than two million streams of live and archived games through WNBA LiveAccess, a new feature on WNBA.com that provided fans with free access to more than 200 live game Webcasts - the league's most comprehensive offering - throughout the season.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tips off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

GLOBAL REACH: Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2009, for the third straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the previous total of 198 countries. Included were television agreements in six new countries: Argentina, Bulgaria, Jamaica, Panama, South Africa, South Korea and China. In addition, for the fourth consecutive year, fans in China were able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on NBA.com/china.

WNBA rosters for the 2009 season featured 18 international players from 11 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent are the Seattle Storm's Lauren Jackson (Australia), Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent), and Los Angeles Sparks' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal).

OWNERSHIP: Seven WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, Tulsa Shock and Washington Mystics.

With the announcement on Oct. 20, 2009 that the Detroit Shock would relocate to Tulsa, Okla., Tulsa Pro Hoops L.L.C. will begin play in 2010 and is led by Bill Cameron and David Box. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008. In October, 2009, Kathy Betty purchased the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Sheila Johnson's Washington Mystics, Michael Alter's Chicago Sky, and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently owned WNBA franchises.

Seven women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics); Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks); Kathy Betty (Atlanta); and Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau (Seattle Storm). An eighth, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005 when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS: Diana Taurasi won both the 2009 WNBA MVP award and the 2009 WNBA Finals MVP award. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star and Finals MVP awards during the 2001 season.

In 2008, Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player of the Year in the same season. The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game. She also became just the second player (Lisa Leslie), to dunk in a WNBA game.

While Diana Taurasi of the Phoenix Mercury won her first WNBA MVP award in 2009, there have been several repeat honorees. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks earned the award in 2006, 2001, and 2004. Leslie joined the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes as the only players in WNBA history to capture MVP honors three times. Two players have won the award twice in a career: Houston's Cynthia Cooper (1997, 1998) and Seattle's Lauren Jackson (2003, 2007). The others to capture MVP honors are Yolanda Griffith (then with Sacramento in 1999) and Los Angeles' Candace Parker (2008, when she became the first rookie in league history to earn the award).

Taurasi rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

There is only one player who has reached 6,000 points in her WNBA career. Lisa Leslie, who retired following the 2009 season, ranks at the top of the WNBA's all-time scoring leaders with 6,263 points. The players who have passed the 5,000 point plateau are Tina Thompson, Katie Smith, and Lauren Jackson.

Lauren Jackson became the youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point on July 27, 2007. However, that record was broken when Diana Taurasi reached the same milestone on July 27, 2009 in just 197 games.

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

WNBA CARES: Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, breast health awareness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including Breast Health Awareness, WNBA Green Week, Go Red For Women, WNBA Fit, and Read to Achieve.

LIBERTY IN THE COMMUNITY

GARDEN OF DREAMS

The Garden of Dreams Foundation is a non-profit charity that works closely with all areas of Madison Square Garden, including the Liberty, Knicks, Rangers, MSG Media, MSG Entertainment and Fuse to make dreams come true for kids in our area.

Garden of Dreams partners with local children's hospitals, "wish" organizations and community based organizations to build on-going, unforgettable programs for children in the tri-state area suffering from devastating illness, homelessness, abuse, hunger, extreme poverty and tragedy.

During the 2009 season, the Liberty and Garden of Dreams hosted a variety of events for thousands of area children including the first ever "Dream Week" summer adventure in partnership with all areas of Madison Square Garden. As part of "Dream Week," teens from the Children's Aid Society spent "Liberty Dream Day" with the entire team and coaching staff, receiving personalized Liberty jerseys, an exclusive tour of the Liberty locker room and player lounge, followed by a fun and fundamentals basketball clinic.

As part of the Foundation's "Show Kids New York" program, Janel McCarville and Leilani Mitchell joined a group of children from Harlem Dowling for an afternoon of bowling at Lucky Strike Lanes in mid-town Manhattan.

Additionally, the Liberty and Garden of Dreams hosted their in-arena toy and school supply drives, an annual staple, which collected close to 200 toys and more than 1,000 school supplies. The toys and school supplies were distributed by Loree Moore, Erlana Larkins, Shameka Christon and Essence Carson to Foundation partners, Maria Fareri Children's Hospital, Loisa-da and the Life Center.

The Liberty also hosted several "Dream Nights" throughout the season where children received behind-the-scenes tours of The Garden, watched the team's pre-game warm-ups courtside and enjoyed the game in a luxury suite.

For the Liberty's 14th season, there are significant, on-going plans to continue to brighten the lives of tri-state area children in crisis through "Show Kids New York," the third annual "Liberty Dream Day," "Dream Nights," hospital visits, toy and school supply drives and other once-in-a-lifetime opportunities.

A LIBERTY FAN'S BEST FRIEND

Scanning the crowd at New York Liberty games, you will find many exciting and friendly faces, but one face that stands out is the one that belongs to the New York Liberty mascot, Maddie. Like most dogs, Maddie is lovable and huggable and known for a unique personality among the Liberty faithful.

Besides being a fan favorite, Maddie plays an important role for the team during the Liberty pre-game ceremony. Before every game, you will find Maddie doing pushups and getting the Liberty players pumped up for the game. With less than a minute before tip-off, Maddie leads The Garden crowd in a L-I-B-E-R-T-Y chant while spelling out the name at center court.

In addition to on-court antics, Maddie is also known for valuable work off the court. Whether it is making appearances at the NBA Store in New York City, or pumping up the crowd at The CBS Early Show, you can always count on Maddie to spread happiness throughout the day.

A fact unknown to most, Maddie is named after the Liberty's home arena, Madison Square Garden, and has been entertaining fans at Liberty games since the WNBA's inception in 1997.

LIBERTY DANCE TEAMS

LIBERTY TORCH PATROL

Since the team's inception in 1997, Liberty fans have come to expect several things: championship basketball, deafening crowd noise, New York celebrities and great game entertainment. Performing at every game, the Liberty Torch Patrol has become one of the hottest acts in town, capturing the spirit of the Liberty by combining great dance choreography with high-flying cheerleading stunts and acrobatics.

In addition to their performances during time-outs and half-time, the Torch Patrol does whatever it takes to get Liberty fans involved in the action, including t-shirt sling-shots, streamer cannons and pre-game giveaways. The 16-member Torch Patrol is comprised of both men and women with extensive experience in either professional dance or cheerleading.

LIL' TORCHES

Liberty games are ageless - whether young or old, everyone has a great time. Look no further than the Lil' Torches for proof of just how true that is. The Liberty's junior dance group features local children between the ages of 6-14. When they perform at weekend games at The Garden, they receive just as big of an ovation as Liberty players do! They will once again be brightening games in 2010.

TIMELESS TORCHES

The most recent addition to the Liberty family is a little bit older and a whole lot wiser. The Timeless Torches show that you don't have to be young to be a Liberty fan - just young at heart. This dance group consists of men and women over the age of 40 who want to share their love of the Liberty with the crowd. The Timeless Torches made their debut in 2005, and were a hit from the get-go, making an impact on fans at The Garden, and even showed off their Liberty spirit to a national audience when they performed on ABC's Good Morning America. They have also represented New York by performing at WNBA All-Star Games in 2006, 2007 and 2009. Keep an eye out for this popular and memorable dance troupe, when it returns to MSG for its sixth season this summer.

WNBA IN THE COMMUNITY

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on education, youth and family development and health and wellness.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

Breast Health Awareness

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative.

WNBA FIT

Encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine.

The NBA FIT/ WNBA FIT Challenge is free for boys and girls ages 14 and under, and encourages participants to maintain healthy, active lifestyles. The competition will offer more than 100,000 youngsters the chance to demonstrate their physical fitness through a time-based fitness course that includes line sprints, jump rope, speed revolutions, wall passes, and defensive shuffles. The challenge tests participants' speed, strength, agility, and overall physical fitness.

Dribble, Dish & Swish is free for boys and girls ages 7 to 12 and encourages participants to be active and to maintain healthy lifestyles. The competition gives participants the opportunity to showcase their fundamental basketball skills and physical fitness through a time-based, half-court obstacle course. The local champion in each age and gender group will receive an all-expense paid trip to NBA All-Star 2010 in Dallas, Texas, where they will compete in the national finals for the chance serve as a ball kid at a select NBA All-Star event.

READ TO ACHIEVE

A year-round, league-wide initiative that promotes the values of reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community based organizations, and the creation of Reading and Learning Centers and Reading Corners throughout the world.

VACCINES FOR TEENS

A national multimedia campaign designed to educate teens and their parents about the importance of vaccination against, potentially life-threatening diseases.

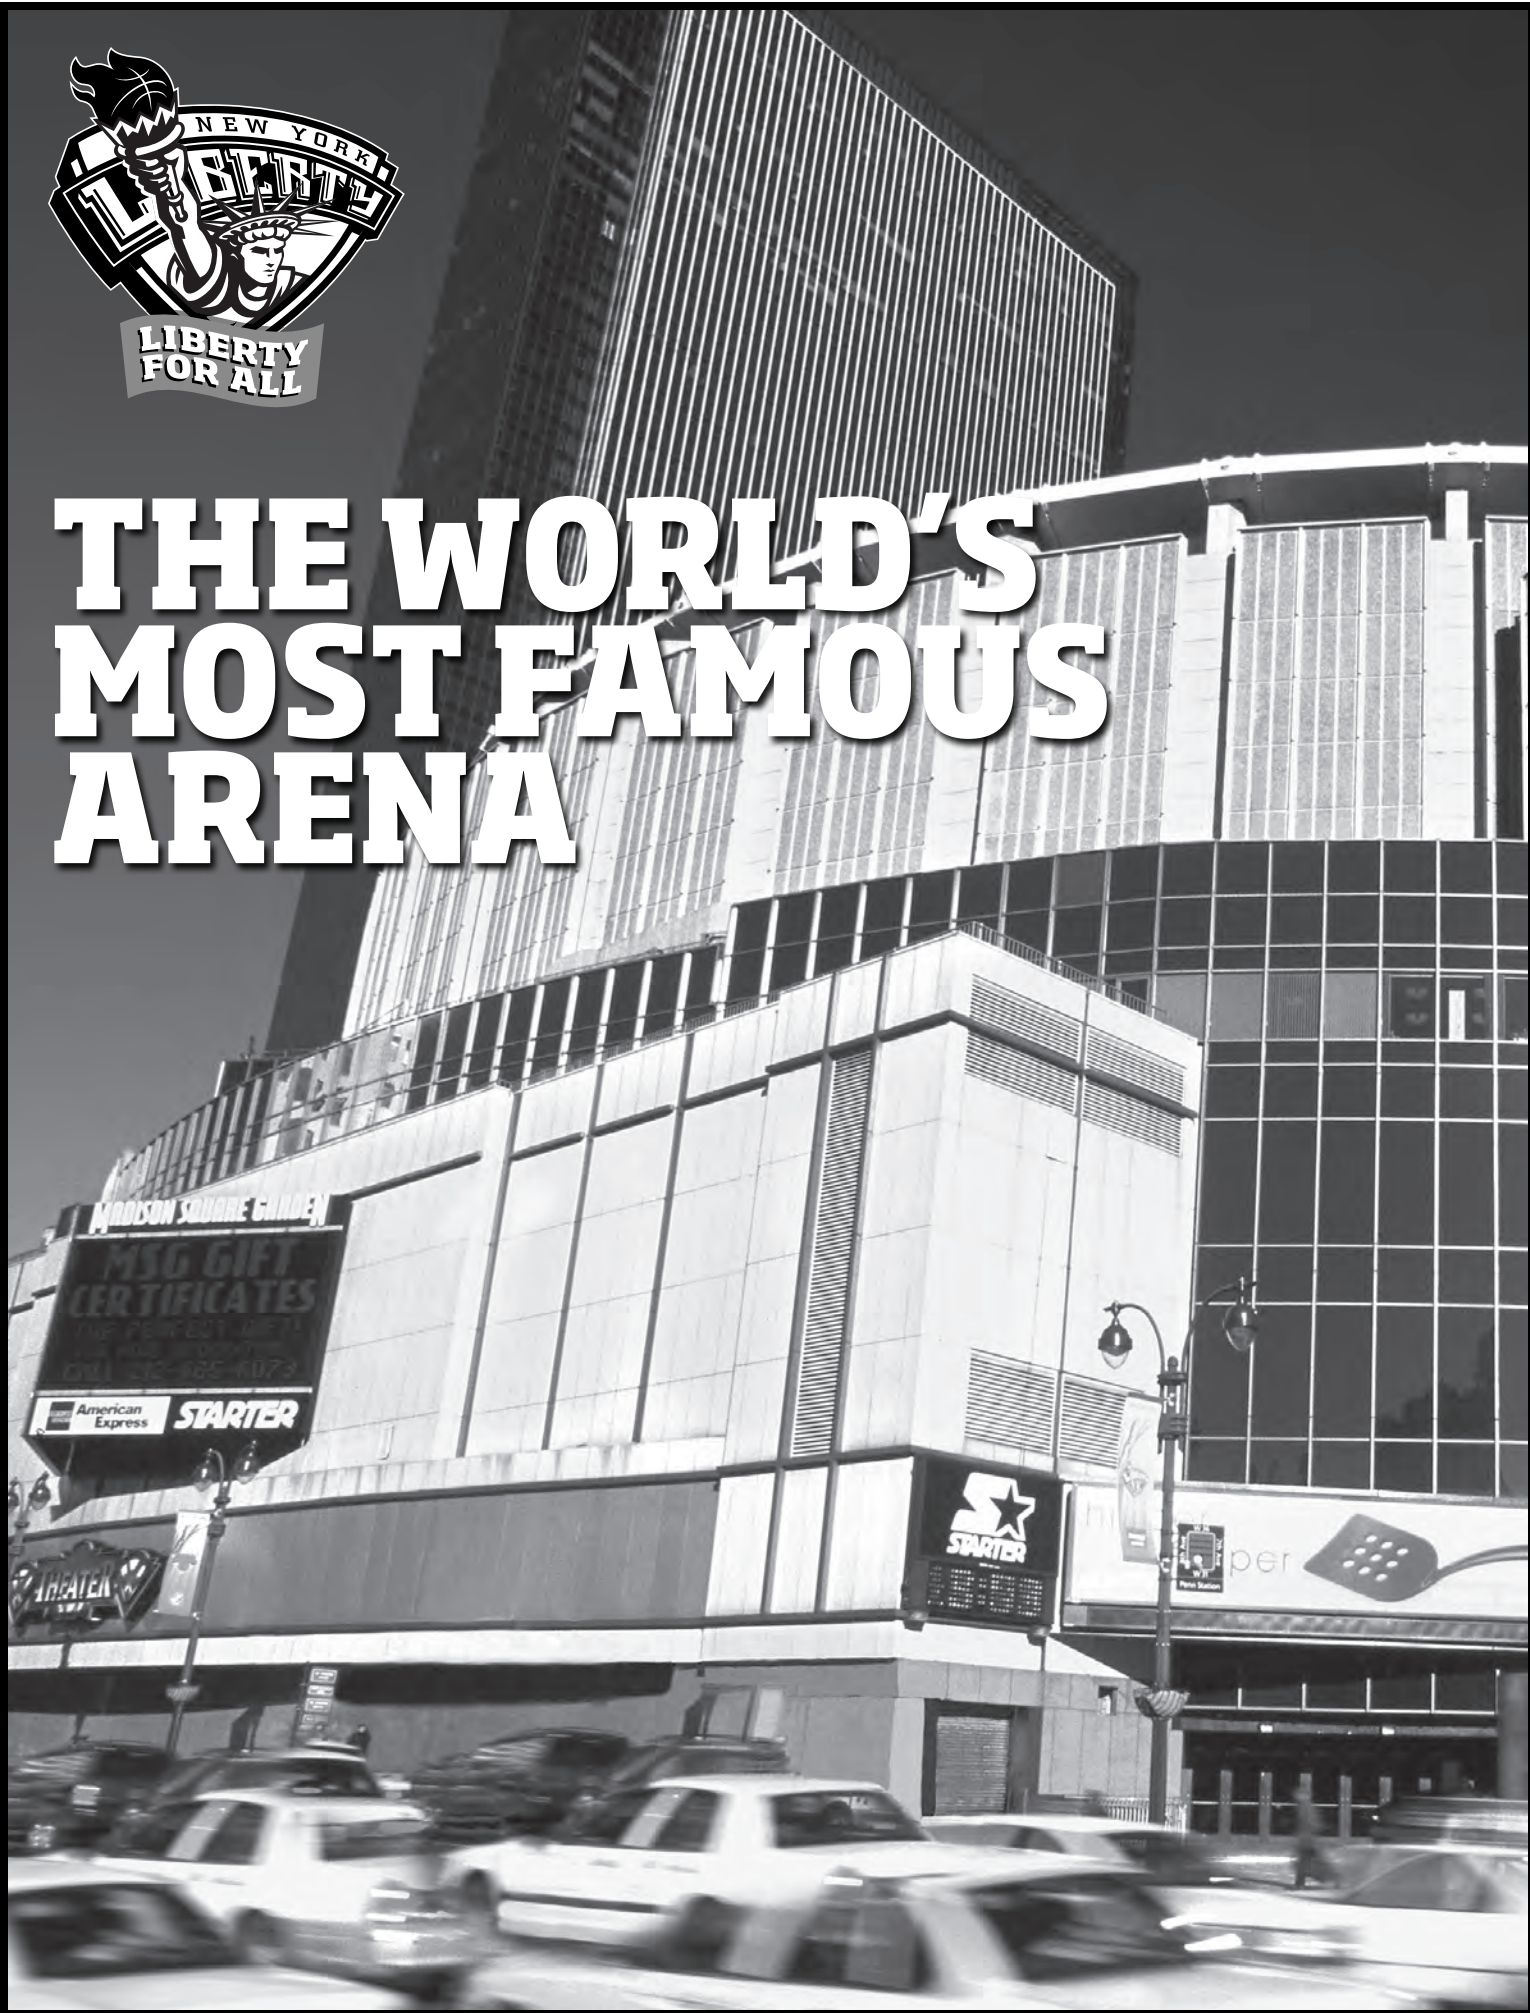

THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS ARENA

MSG HISTORY

THE CURRENT GARDEN—located between 31st and 33rd Streets and Seventh and Eighth Avenues on Manhattan’s West Side—is the fourth building (third site) to be named Madison Square Garden.

GARDEN I was located at Madison Square: 26th Street and Madison Avenue. It was originally opened in 1874 (at a cost of $35,000) by the legendary P.T. Barnum as “Barnum’s Monster Classical and Geological Hippodrome.” However, it was soon renamed “Gilmore’s Garden” when the lease was auctioned off to bandmaster Patrick S. Gilmore (the term “Garden” was used often during this period to denote a place of public gathering and entertainment).

The building, which had 28-foot walls without a roof, hosted a varied schedule of social and fraternal meetings, flower shows and commercial exhibitions. When Gilmore’s lease expired in 1878, it was picked up briefly by W. M. Tilesen. The following year, William Vanderbilt of the New York Central Railroad assumed control of the facility and officially renamed it “Madison Square Garden” on May 31, 1879. Featuring a sports and entertainment program that stressed such events as boxing and the National Horse Show, Garden I stood until its demolition in 1889.

GARDEN II was constructed on the site of Garden I, opening on Jun. 16, 1890 at a cost of $1.5 million. It contained an 8,000-seat main arena, 1,500-seat concert hall, 1,200-seat theatre and the world’s largest indoor swimming pool. The Spanish Renaissance-style structure was topped by its most famous feature: a 32-story tower and roof garden atop which stood Augustus Saint-Gauden’s gold statue of Diana, Goddess of the Hunt.

Stanford White, the renowned architect who designed Garden II, also figured in its most famous—and infamous—event. On the night of Jun. 25, 1906, White was gunned down in the Garden’s rooftop garden by Pittsburgh millionaire Harry Thaw, allegedly in revenge for White’s long-standing affair with Thaw’s wife, showgirl Evelyn Nesbit. The White-Thaw-Nesbit love triangle was ultimately immortalized in the 1955 film The Girl in the Red Velvet Swing—starring Ray Milland as White and Joan Collins as Nesbit—and in the recent best-seller American Eve by Paula Uruburu (Riverhead Books, 2008). Nesbit died in obscurity in California at age 81 in 1967.

Garden II hosted a sporting card heavy with boxing, wrestling, six-day bicycle races and horse shows, along with national events such as the 1924 Democratic National Convention, a marathon that lasted through 16 days and 103 ballots. Movie buffs will recall that in Orson Welles’ 1941 classic Citizen Kane, Charles Foster Kane’s acceptance of the 1916 New York gubernatorial nomination takes place at Garden II (although, obviously, it wasn’t actually filmed there).

Garden II closed with a boxing card on May 5, 1925, followed by a mournful eulogy by ring announcer Joe Humphreys: “Farewell to thee, o temple of fistiana. Farewell to thee, o sweet Miss Diana...”. The New York Life Insurance Building (51 Madison Avenue) occupies the former site of Gardens I and II, while Diana found a new home at the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

GARDEN III: The “Old Garden”—was built in just 249 days at 49th Street and Eighth Avenue under the watchful eyes of promoter Tex Rickard and architect Thomas Lamb. The fabled 18,000-seat arena, built at a cost of $5.6 million, opened with a six-day bicycle race on Nov. 24, 1925, and for 43 years was America’s premier sports and entertainment showplace. Ironically, Rickard did not live to see the blossoming of Garden III, suffering a fatal appendicitis attack on Jan. 6, 1929.

Anyone who ever set foot in the Old Garden remembers its unforgettable atmosphere...the sky-high balcony...the haze from decades of cigarette smoke...the main lobby, a schmoozer’s paradise...the marquee...G.O. Cards...the organ (played first by Gladys Goodding, later by Virginia Thomas)...the unmistakable voice of John Condon...the Nedick’s and Adam Hats stores that flanked the main entrance...

Sports—especially hockey, basketball, boxing and track—would be the lifeblood of the Old Garden. But it also hosted entertainment extravaganzas ranging from the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus and the Gene Autry Rodeo to star-studded spectacles like Mike Todd's 1957 anniversary party for his film Around the World in 80 Days and President John F. Kennedy's May 19, 1962 birthday party which featured Marilyn Monroe's breathless version of "Happy Birthday." On the screen, the Garden provided the inspiration, and title, for the 1932 Paramount epic Madison Square Garden, starring Jack Oakie and ZaSu Pitts, as well as the on-location backdrop for the harrowing final reel of John Frankenheimer's 1962 classic The Manchurian Candidate.

The last event ever was the Westminster Dog Show, over Feb. 12-13, 1968. After the Old Garden was demolished, the site was used for years as a Kinney parking lot. The Worldwide Plaza office/apartment complex, which opened in 1989, now occupies the site.

GARDEN IV: On Nov. 3, 1960, Garden president Irving Mitchell Felt announced plans for a new Madison Square Garden—Garden IV—to eventually be built at 33rd Street between Seventh and Eighth Avenues, atop Pennsylvania Station.

Prospective sites for a New Garden had been discussed throughout the mid- and late-'50s, especially the area at Columbus Circle which would eventually house the New York Coliseum and, ultimately, the Time Warner Center.

Then the Garden Corporation obtained the coveted "air rights" above Penn Station from the Pennsylvania Railroad in 1961. The Railroad had entertained the idea of selling Penn Station's air rights as far back as 1951, when faced with a $72 million deficit. In 1955, Railroad president James Symes and famed real estate developer William Zeckendorf signed an agreement to option the Station's air rights for an industrial-commercial "Palace of Progress", with a new, renovated Penn Station below street level. When the project fell through, the Railroad sold the air rights to the Garden Corporation. Above-ground demolition of Penn Station began on Oct. 28, 1963, with new concrete poured starting on May 1, 1964.

The effort was not without its critics, one of whom called the destruction of Penn Station "an act of irresponsible public vandalism." Ultimately, Penn Station's legacy was the New York City Landmarks Preservation Commission, the guiding force behind a series of laws that today protect more than 1,000 individual city landmarks.

Garden IV opened as a glittering sports and entertainment showplace, with its distinctive circular, cable-suspended roof above the 19,000-seat arena, its 5,000-seat Felt Forum, 48-lane Bowling Center, 500-seat cinema, Hall of Fame Club, National Art Museum of Sport, 50,000-square foot Exposition Rotunda and 29-story office building (Two Penn Plaza) attached by a pedestrian mall.

The first element of the New Garden complex to open its doors was the Bowling Center, on Oct. 30, 1967. On Nov. 26, 1967, the Felt Forum opened with a performance of the Welsh and Scots Guards.

The "New Garden" itself officially opened on Feb. 11, 1968, when Bob Hope and Bing Crosby hosted "The Night of the Century," a star-studded salute to the USO.

AND A NEW ERA DAWNS...: The planned renovation of The World's Most Famous Arena will transform Madison Square Garden into a state-of-the-art building that will enhance the experience for customers, athletes, entertainers, fans and partners. The complete transformation will dramatically increase the breadth of virtually all areas. Highlights will include a dramatically redesigned lobby entrance, wider and more spacious public concourses with spectacular views of the city, more comfortable seats and better sightlines, newly designed suites, more food and beverage options, additional restrooms and improved dressing rooms, locker rooms, green rooms and production offices for athletes and performers. The renovated lower bowl is expected to be open for the 2011-12 regular seasons and the renovated upper bowl for the 2012-13 regular seasons.

MSG NETWORK

MSG television network has been providing thrills for New York-area sports fans for nearly 41 years. MSG's historic first telecast was on October 15, 1969 with the New York Rangers' home opener against the Minnesota North Stars to 18,000 cable television subscribers in lower Manhattan. Today, the network is available in over 10.8 million homes in the broader New York region and across the nation.

Since its inception, MSG has prided itself on being a leader in the sports television industry by staying on the cutting edge of sports technology. In 1998, MSG became the first regular provider of sporting events in high definition (HD). This year, MSG delivered the world's first hockey game in 3D. Currently MSG, along with sister network MSG Plus, telecasts nearly 700 live events per year, of which over 350 are shown in HD. The two networks serve as the television home for the New York Knicks, New York Rangers, New York Liberty, New York Islanders, New Jersey Devils, and the Red Bull New York, offering fans live sports action year around along with an extensive line-up of original programming.

MSG is proud to enter its 14th season as the television home for New York Liberty games. The network has provided coverage of the Liberty since the team's debut season in the summer of 1997.

KENNY ALBERT

One of the most versatile sports broadcasters in the country, Kenny joined the booth last season to call the play-by-play action. In nearly 20 years in broadcasting, he has become a fixture in the New York Rangers radio booth calling play-by-play action since 1995. Away from MSG, Kenny has served as an announcer for FOX Sports for over ten years, calling play-by-play for the NFL and MLB.

MIKE CRISPINO

A seasoned sports host and play-by-play broadcaster, Mike will handle play-by-play duties this season for Liberty telecasts. In his over 15 years at MSG, he has handled a multitude of roles including serving as host and play-by-play announcer for nearly all of the major sports leagues. Mike currently serves as the fill-in television and radio play-by-play announcer for New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

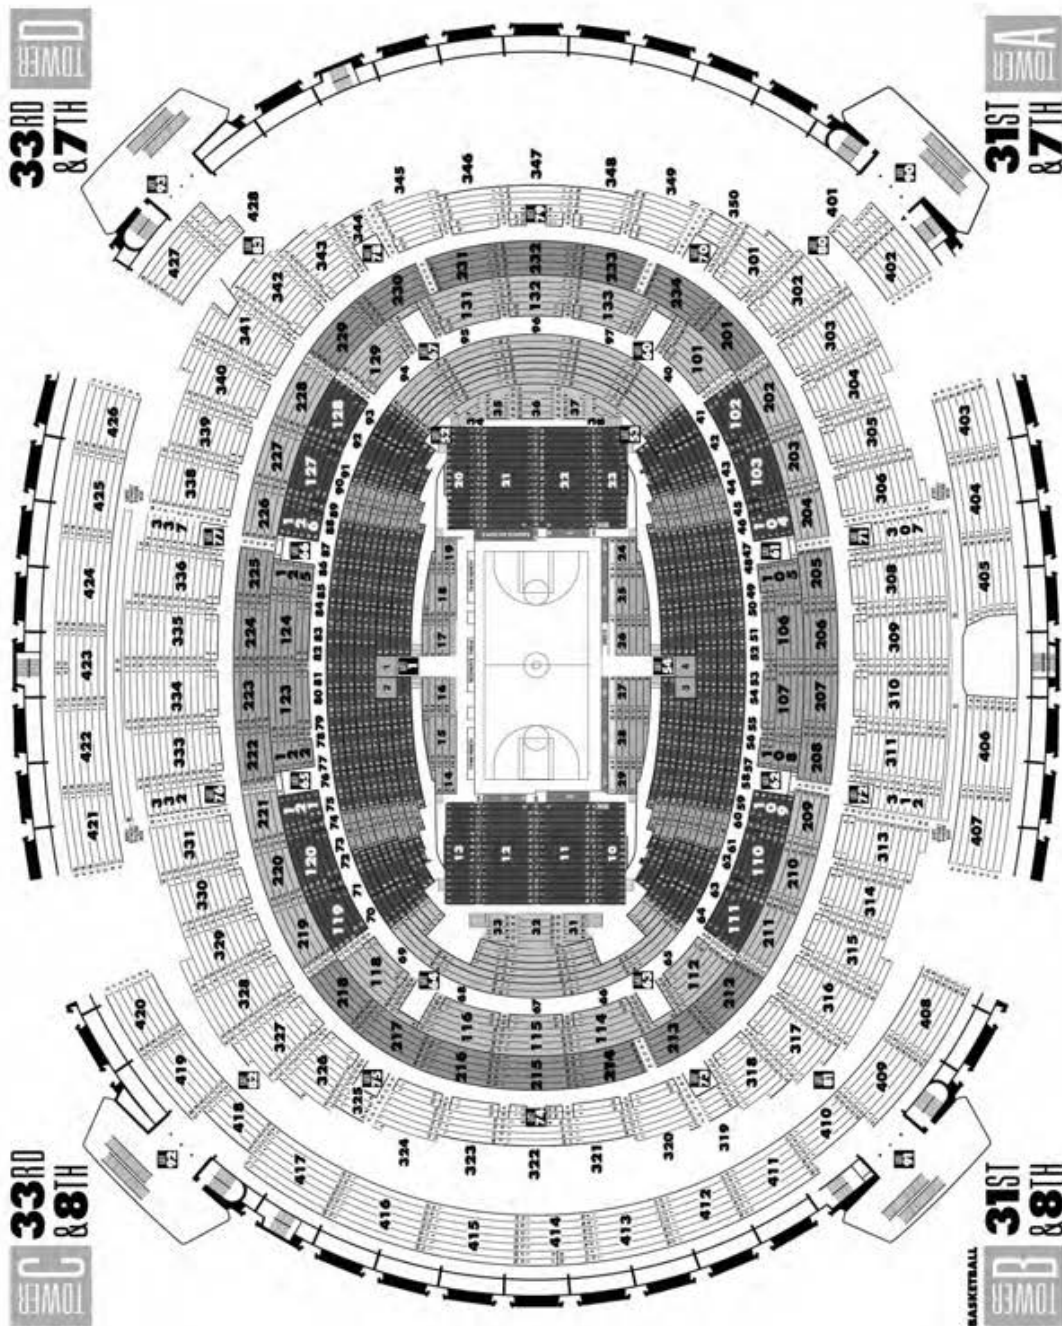

MARY MURPHY

A long-standing personality in women's basketball, Mary is the former head coach and general manager of the Sacramento Monarchs. She has worked as an analyst for women's college basketball for FSN since 1999 and was the television and radio voice of the Miami Sol from 2000 to 2003. Mary enters her fifth consecutive season as an analyst for the Liberty on MSG.
